

Praying God's name
Week 2: 10-16 October 2015

DATE	NAME Scripture	MEANING APPLICATION	PRAYER
Sat 10 Oct	EL Roi Genesis 16:13	The God who sees me – There are no circumstance in our lives that escape His fatherly awareness and care. God knows all our troubles.	EL ROI, in your name you reveal your heart as you remind us that you see us as individuals. Because you see me I know that I am truly known. When I feel alone and forgotten, please forgive me for neglecting to acknowledge your name. Forgive me for grumbling when I don't see the one who sees me. You do not judge by external appearance or by what the world values. You see my heart, and so I pray now Nehemiah prayed so long ago: "Remember me with favour". AMEN.
Sun 11 Oct	EL Shaddai Genesis 17:12	The almighty God. The all-sufficient one – God is the all-sufficient source of all our blessings. God is all-powerful. Our problems are not too big for God to handle.	El Shaddai, you are great and mighty in power and your understanding and wisdom knows no limits. Look upon me with a caring heart and witness the many struggles I face. Have compassion when you see me seeking to follow you and often failing to do well. Forgive me when I am unfaithful to you. El Shaddai, show me how to honour you with my faith. Strengthen the muscles of my heart and soul so that I am willing to risk it all for you. Help me demonstrate my dedication and commitment to you, my King and to your kingdom agenda on earth. AMEN
Mon 12 Oct	Jehovah Jireh Genesis 22:14	The Lord will provide – God sees the future as well as the past and the present and is able to anticipate and provide for what is needed.	Jehovah Jireh, your grace is adequate to fill my needs. You have not left me wanting, You give air for the lungs to breathe, light for eyes to see, and love for the heart to live. Forgive me for the times I have looked elsewhere to fill a need when you alone are my provider. Forgive me for thinking the government has more control than you or that my doctor has the final say regarding my health. Thank you for taking care of everything through your provision – my finances, health, food, shelter and love. Let me know you in the truest and most authentic form of this name as you meet me in my pain, sacrifice, and dedication to you. AMEN.
Tues 13 Oct	Jehovah Shalom Judges 6:25	The Lord of our peace – God defeats our enemies to bring peace. Jesus is our prince of peace. Gods brings inner peace and harmony. The fruit of harmony is harmony with others, self, prosperity, and health.	Jehovah Shalom, you spoke to the wind and the waves and calmed them with just one word. You still the storm within me. I admit that peace escapes me more other than it should. I know that with faith comes peace. With trust comes peace. With rest comes peace. Forgive me for lacking in all three and give me the grace of your peace. Lord I speak Shalom into my body. I speak Shalom into my health. I speak Shalom, into my minds, my thoughts, and my heart. Jehovah Shalom, reveal to me the choices I need to make to enter into and even greater level of your peace.

Wed 14 Oct	Jehovah Rophe Exodus 15:26	The Lord who heals – As God made the Israelites whole after they left Egypt, so can He make us whole. He is the healer of the body and the soul.	Jehovah Rophe, I lift your name in praise, as you are the ultimate caregiver. With just one word you can removed sickness, reverse disease, and bring healing to the cells of our body. Forgive me for not trusting in your healing power. Heal in me the doubt the keeps me from trusting you. You tell me to be attentive to your words and keep them within my heart. When I cry out to you in my time of trouble, save me from my distress and bring words of comfort to me. Heal my thoughts so I can think about what is lovely. Heal my words so that I may speak kindness to those I meet. Prompt me to care for my body that you have given me so that I may eat, drink, rest and exercise. Make me aware of the importance of taking care of that which you have freely given me to enjoy – my life. AMEN.
Thurs 15 Oct	Jehovah Rohi Psalm 23:1	The Lord my shepherd – The Lord watches over us day and night and leads us safely on the path of righteousness.	Jehovah Rohi, You are the great shepherd, guider of my soul. You are both King and Shepherd over all. I often feel I am in want and look at things I don't have and covet them. Forgive me for my discontent. As my shepherd you give me all I need. When I feel I lack it is not because you have not provided for me. It is because I have disregarded what you have given. Thank you for being patient and kind and for leading me to greener pastures. Without you as my shepherd I would surely wander and eventually get lost. Guide me with you hand and show me your loving care as you shepherd me through life's path. AMEN.
Fri 16 Oct	Elohim Kedoshim Joshua 24:19	The Holy God – God dwells in a high holy place yet He chooses to dwell in the humble heart of His children	Elohim Kedoshim, I praise you as my Lord and God. In your holiness you renew the lowly and comfort the hurting. I know you want me to be holy as you are holy and I seek that with all my heart. But I also know I have fallen short in the past, fall short in the present and will fall short in the future. In my humaneness I sin to often and offend you, your beauty and purity. Thank you that you have made a way through Jesus, to allow me into your presence. I know I lack the pure holiness in my spirit and that saddens you but you still love me. Make my heart holy like yours. Intervene in my life and empower me to live in holiness day in and day out. AMEN.
